

PUBLIC HEALTH GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

Purpose

The certificate will prepare students to understand the field of public health and concepts relating to human health and apply best practices in public health research.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Determine population health status, needs, and resources using appropriate assessment and analytical methods.

Admission Requirements

Please refer to the Admissions Requirements Matrix for Certificates in the Graduate Admissions section of this Catalog.

Program of Study

Delivery Format: Residential Only

- Public Health - Graduate Certificate

Career Opportunities

- Health Educator
- Community Health Program Planner
- Program Evaluator
- Worksite Wellness Program Administrator
- Health Coach
- Employers such as Local Government, State Government, Federal agencies such as OSHA, FDA, CDC, etc., Health Agencies, NGOs, Community-Based Organizations, and Hospital settings.

Some of these positions may require Certified Health Education Specialist (CHES) certification, which students will be eligible for after completing this program and passing the certification exam.