

MASTER OF DIVINITY IN COMMUNITY CHAPLAINCY (M.DIV.)

Purpose

The Master of Divinity in Community Chaplaincy program aims to prepare and empower students to serve as committed ambassadors for Christ in both secular and sacred settings. This program provides an integrated approach where multiple disciplines are utilized while connecting learning in real-life applications with ministry settings and leaders. This program focuses specifically on training students for community chaplaincy contexts.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Cultivate a global perspective on the Great Commission, emphasizing the proclamation and practical application of the gospel in making disciples.
- Explore major critical issues in the Old and New Testaments from a conservative evangelical standpoint exhibiting knowledge of the literature appropriate to the discipline of biblical studies.
- Investigate theological stances on key doctrinal questions and issues within Christian thought.
- Synthesize the principles of chaplain care in the community context.
