

MASTER OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (M.R.E.)

Purpose

The Master of Religious Education degree is the professional theological degree in Christian Education and Discipleship Ministries. This 60-hour program is designed to equip a man or woman who has been called by God to serve as a professional Christian worker in such capacities as the associate pastor, a minister or director of Christian education, a discipleship pastor, small group pastor and other positions that require a broad general knowledge of church educational programs and discipleship ministries.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Explicate the origin and contents of the Bible, as it informs the Christian faith and its missional endeavors.
- Synthesize the theological and historical foundations of Christian education.
- Construct a biblically based discipleship program plan for a selected ministry.
- Assess the effectiveness of contemporary approaches to Christian leadership.

Program Specific Admission Requirements

In addition to the general admission procedures, applicants to the Master of Religious Education program must meet the following requirements:

1. Earned baccalaureate degree or its equivalent (in any field) from an institution accredited by an agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (e.g., SACSCOC, TRACS, ABHE, etc.).
2. Contact information for one Pastoral Recommendation.
