EDMN 530 History and Philosophy of Christian Education 3 Credit Hour(s)

Online Prerequisite: RTCH 500 and EDMN 525

This course provides an overview of the history of Christian education. Emphasis will be given to education within church and other ministerial settings. Philosophical foundations impacting Christian education will also be considered from a biblical worldview perspective.

Offered: Online

EDMN 540 Teaching Strategies and Curriculum Development for Christian Education 3 Credit Hour(s)

Online Prerequisite: ((THEO 525 or THEO 530 or THEO 610) and LEAD 510 and RTCH 500)

The best educational experience strikes a proper balance between effective leadership, excellent teaching, and thoughtful curriculum development. This course seeks to examine the process for achieving the delicate but necessary balance between these three critical areas: leadership, teaching, & curriculum.

Offered: Online

EDMN 545 Teaching Across the Lifespan 3 Credit Hour(s)

Online Prerequisite: RTCH 500 and EDMN 530

This course provides students with useful resources for designing generation-specific educational activities across the lifespan. It is intentionally created to help students in local church ministries develop and deploy educational ministries that reflect learning needs throughout the lifespan. Biblical norms are also used to help students plan strategies for educational ministry. Particular attention is given to issues of spiritual maturity and as persons navigate various life stages.
