

HUMANITARIAN ACTION & HUMAN RIGHTS (HAHR)

HAHR 615 Women and Children in Crisis 3 Credit Hour(s)

Online Prerequisite: CLCM 501 and HUMR 501 and THEO 615

This course explores the perilous situation that women and children face in crises. This course will include both US and global perspectives, with special attention given to the role of the church and faith-based organizations in providing care and support.

Offered: Online

HAHR 620 Protection Systems for Women, Children, and Vulnerable Populations 3 Credit Hour(s)

Online Prerequisite: CLCM 501 and HUMR 501 and THEO 615

This course explores the protection systems available to women, children, and vulnerable populations. This course will include both US and global perspectives, with special attention given to the role of the church and faith-based organizations in providing care, support, and advocacy to those in need.

Offered: Online