

CONVERSATIONAL SPANISH MAJOR (A.A.)

Purpose

The Associate of Arts in Conversational Spanish program develops students' proficiency in spoken Spanish, emphasizing practical communication skills for diverse professional and cultural contexts. Through structured coursework in conversation, grammar, composition, and applied language practice, students gain confidence in engaging with Spanish-speaking communities. The program integrates linguistic and cultural studies, including Latin American civilization and Spanish children's literature and film, to enhance cross-cultural competence. Graduates are prepared for roles requiring bilingual communication or further study in Spanish-related fields. Rooted in a Christian worldview, the program fosters ethical and service-oriented engagement with Spanish-speaking populations.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Develop a Christian worldview for conversing in Spanish-speaking cultures.
- Communicate with intermediate proficiency in conversational Spanish.
- Demonstrate intermediate writing skills in Spanish.

Program of Study

Delivery Format: Online Only

- Conversational Spanish (A.A.) - Online

Career Opportunities

- Any job or position where the employee interacts with Spanish speakers on a regular basis.
- International business
- Cultural liaison
- Cultural studies
- Travel and tourism
- School teaching assistant
- Teacher's aid
- Assistant translator
- Community service