INFORMATION ASSURANCE CERTIFICATE

Purpose

The Certificate in Information Assurance seeks to provide students with a deeper understanding of cybersecurity awareness. Ultimately reinforcing the concepts of the Information Security triad (confidentiality, integrity, and availability of data) that are much needed within the field of business Information Systems.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Create information assurance policies for businesses that reinforce the information security triad of confidentiality, integrity, and availability of data.

Program of Study
Delivery Format: Online Only

- Information Assurance Certificate - Online

Career Opportunities

- Cybersecurity Specialist
- Information Assurance Engineer
- Information Assurance Specialist
- Information Security Analyst
- IT Specialist

Additional education or training may be required for some jobs or occupations. Conferral of a certificate does not guarantee job placement.