

HEALTH SCIENCES CERTIFICATE

Purpose

The Certificate in Health Sciences is designed to prepare students for a healthcare career path. The certificate program provides an introduction to the most relevant foundational topics in the health sciences taught from a Christian worldview.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Use critical thinking strategies as a basis for addressing issues within the health sciences profession.

Program of Study

Delivery Format: Online Only

- Health Sciences Certificate - Online

Career Opportunities

- Community Health or Public Health Worker
- Health Educator
- Health Journalist
- Hospital or Physician's Office Management
- Medical Administrative Assistant
- Medical Staff Relations
- Patient Care Advocate
- Pharmaceutical Sales Representative
- Patient Care Services

Additional education or training may be required for some jobs or occupations. Conferral of a certificate does not guarantee job placement.