VOCAL PERFORMANCE MAJOR (B.M.)

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Demonstrate technical fluency, expressiveness, style, and professionalism in musical performance.
- Apply broad-based knowledge of music through research in the areas of music history, music theory, and music literature.
- Integrate Christian faith into the discipline of music.
- Demonstrate advanced performance skills in appropriate performance media.

Program of Study
Delivery Format: Residential Only

- Vocal Performance (B.M.) - Resident

Career Opportunities

- Choral Conductor
- Opera Singer
- Professional Recitalist
- Professional Voice Teacher