

VOCAL PERFORMANCE MAJOR (B.M.)

Purpose

The purpose of the Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance major is to prepare students to be uniquely skilled performers and music practitioners in the area of voice

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Demonstrate technical fluency, expressiveness, style, and professionalism in musical performance.
- Apply broad-based knowledge of music through research in the areas of music history, music theory, and music literature.
- Integrate Christian faith into the discipline of music.
- Demonstrate advanced performance skills in appropriate performance media.

Program of Study

Delivery Format: Residential Only

- Vocal Performance (B.M.) - Resident

Career Opportunities

- Choral Conductor
- Opera Singer
- Professional Recitalist
- Professional Voice Teacher